

I am a big believer in treating the horses with Functional Electrical Stimulation (FES). Dr. Sheila Schils has worked on our horses for over 8 years. Every time we have a new client come into the barn we encourage them to get their horses treated. Our clients know that they need to be on the program of treatments and movement evaluations so we don't just fix problems, but also prevent them.

Janine

Pittstown, New Jersey

December, 2010